Exceptional Leadership in Public Health Recognised

West African Institute of Public Health Announces 2024 Distinguished Fellowship Awardees

Abuja, Nigeria - The West African Institute of Public Health (WAIPH) is pleased to announce the 2024 recipients of the prestigious Distinguished Fellowship of the Academy of Public Health (DFAPH). This esteemed recognition honours outstanding individuals who have demonstrated exceptional leadership, scholarship, and service in public health.

2024 Distinguished Fellowship Awardees:

1. Dr. Matshidiso Moeti
2. Mr. Joel Lamstein
3. Dr. Magda Robalo
4. Dr. John Nkengasong

Selection Process

The selection was driven by young African public health professionals, with the Academy's membership committee.

Distinguished Fellowship

The DFAPH is the highest tier of the Fellowship Roll, reserved for individuals demonstrating exceptional leadership, scholarship, and service. Awardees become Senior Adjunct Faculties of the Institute.

Induction Ceremony

Join us on November 7, 2024, for our annual hybrid induction ceremony and workshop in Abuja, to formally confer the Distinguished Fellowship upon these eminent global citizens.

Celebrating Excellence

This event honours their invaluable contributions and inspires future generations of public health professionals. Past awardees include:

Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Helen Clark, Joy Phumaphi, Wondimagegnehu Alemu, Leith Greenslade, Pape Amadou Gaye, Rose Leke, Michel Sidibe, Oyewale Tomori, Joanne Liu, MDCM, FRCPC.

Quote from Dr. Francis Ohanyido, FAPH, Director-General, WAIPH

"We are thrilled to recognize these exceptional leaders for their dedication to advancing public health in Africa and beyond. Their work has made a lasting impact, and we are proud to welcome them to our community of distinguished fellows."
